DEATH BY THE LAW

The Grim Garrote's Deadly Work in Spain

FOUR ANARCHISTS EXECUTED

Their Taking Off Forms a Horrid Speccie Bulgre the Eyes of Thomas in the Public Street.

Mapuro, Feb. 10. -- Four eq mapure, set. 10.—Four condemned marchints were garroted at 10 a.m. at lores in the plans in front of the prism. A formidable force of troops was massed in the plans and kept the rowd at a distance. The condemned scepted the ministration of the lergy.

The instrument of death used in ain is always, unless shooting is selfed, the garrote. This is a brass lar which is contracted by means of grow in the back. As the screw is read the collar shuts upon the cit of the condemned, and at a same time the sharped steel point of the acrew enters the inal marrow where it joins with the ain, causing instantaneous [death, to spectacle was a borrible one. As a screw of the garrote entered the inst their heads fell forward, the frace ming purple and the tongues proding. A cry of horror west upon many in the crewd.

The names of the four men executed were Busigni, Zarnetella, Lamaia and Lebrijane. The condemned men were leadern in the attack upon and plundering of Zeres on January 5, by a band of raiders, said to be insrchists, and belonged to an organization for areusing a rebellion in Spain. There was no disorder, however, during the axecutions
